Shuttle coach transfers have been scheduled to align with the event timetable. If your arrival or departure does not correspond with the scheduled shuttle coach times, you will be responsible for your own transport to and/or from the event venue.

When you get to Amsterdam Airport Schiphol, please make your way to the Meeting Point in the arrivals hall. The Meeting Point is signposted and airport staff will be able to point you in the right direction if you are having trouble. Watch out for our friendly volunteers - they will be holding IFC signs and wearing teal polo shirts.

Our volunteers will be allocating spaces on our shuttle coaches on a first-come, first-served basis. Please go to the Meeting Point and do not try to find the shuttle coaches on your own or you may end up missing the next coach if seats have already been allocated.

If you are taking a shuttle coach transfer back to the airport after the event, please ensure you leave the event venue in plenty of time. If demand is high, we cannot guarantee a seat on a shuttle coach at your preferred time; arrive early to avoid disappointment. Journey times to the airport may vary and depend on weather, traffic, and more. Unforeseen circumstances can cause significant delays. The Resource Alliance is not liable for missed departures for any reason.
